

Budget, treat, splurge in Marseille-Provence: where to stay, eat, and explore

📍 Les Grandes Halles in Marseille serves up food from around the world

Going out

Budget: Mx, Marseille

Concept bars are usually based on looks, however Mx is unique for being rooted in taste ... the taste of aniseed, that is - the key ingredient of pastis and absinthe, known locally as "the taste of the south". Located in the heart of Marseille's Joliette district at Docks Village, Mx's store, bar, restaurant and events are all dedicated to the star spice.

Treat: Les Grandes Halles, Marseille

Who could say "non" to 2,000 sq metres of the finest food from all over the world, plus 400 seats you can eat it on while sunbathing? Opened this July in the newly converted naval arsenals, Les Grandes Halles also hosts a farmers' market, greengrocer and brewery.
